

Webcasts Home*Browse:

- Biography, History
- Culture, Performing Arts
- Education
- Government
- Poetry, Literature
- Religion
- Science, Technology

More Audio, Video Resources at the Library

- Motion Pictures in American Memory
- Motion Picture, Television Reading Room
- Sound Recordings from the Library Shop

Syriac Chants & Aramaic Christianity in India

Video Controls ▾

TITLE: Syriac Chants & Aramaic Christianity in IndiaSPEAKER: Joseph J. PalackalEVENT DATE: 2018/05/31RUNNING TIME: 56 minutesTRANSCRIPT: View Transcript (link will open in a new window)DESCRIPTION:

Joseph J. Palackal discusses Aramaic Christianity, an essential component of India's religious diversity. Christian faith came to the shores of South India from its source in West Asia, through the medium of the mother tongue of Jesus and the apostles. Christian Aramaic came to be known as Syriac, and due to unusual historical circumstances its tradition survived in India.

Related Webcasts

- Webcasts for Researchers

SERIES: Benjamin Botkin Lecture SeriesRelated Library Resources

- American Folklife Center

Please Visit

Syriac Chants & Aramaic Christianity in India

https://www.loc.gov/today/cyberlc/feature_wdesc.php?rec=8534