Dear Father,

Trust you are doing well. I hope you remember me from our previous chats. I am writing this after attending the DVK webinar on liturgical music. It was a pleasure listening to you, although I wish you were given more time. I am also glad to share that I have been offered a fully funded PhD Fellowship at the University of California, Los Angeles, in the department of ethnomusicology, where I will be working on my project that looks at the various musical traditions among the St. Thomas Christians.

Looking forward to reading and listening to more of your research presentations.

Kind Regards

George Pioustin
